INTRODUCTION

The Tucker–Vaughan Papers (1840-1912) are centered on the lives of William Benjamin Tucker (1841-1915), Union Civil War Veteran, painter, and Railway Postal Clerk of Nashville, Tennessee, and his father-in-law, Ruffin Vaughan (1805-1870) of Tennessee. The donor of the Tucker–Vaughan Papers is Joe Hooper of Nashville, Tennessee.

The materials in this collection occupy .84 cubic feet of shelf space. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Tucker–Vaughan Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Tucker–Vaughan Papers, containing approximately 160 items, span the period 1840-1912. The collection is composed of accounts, Civil War materials, correspondence, court records, genealogical data, land records, legal records, pension (Civil War) applications, photographs, drawings, etc., railroad papers, slavery, tax receipts, voter registration certificates, and several miscellaneous items. The collection is centered on two Tennessee families: that of William Benjamin Tucker (1841-1915), of Nashville, who served in Company A, 47th Regiment of the Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War, and of his father-in-law, Ruffin Vaughan (1805-1870) of Davidson County. Among the Civil War items is a claim (“for commutation of rations while prisoner-of-war”), a muster roll, orders, and passes relating to Williams B. Tucker and his service as a Union soldier. A clipping (box 1, folder 19) contains a short sketch of the 47th Ohio Regiment.

Correspondence is mainly familial in nature. One of the more valuable letters is that written by William Tucker (1809-1891), father of William Benjamin, while the latter was serving with Tennessee volunteers in the Mexican War in 1846 (box 1, folder 35). He describes in some detail the successful storming of forts guarding the approaches to Monterey, Mexico and the subsequent capture of that city.

Genealogical data generally consists of group sheets on the family of William F. Lewis (1784-1858), whose daughter, Mary C., married Ruffin Vaughan. A sketch entitled “Life of William Benjamin Tucker” may be found in box 1, folder 43. This short summary mentions Southern cities that his regiment (47th Ohio) passed through during the Union campaign in the Civil War.

There are several letters pertaining to William B. Tucker’s application for a Civil War disability pension (box 2, folder 15). On December 29, 1899, the Bureau of Pensions granted Tucker a pension of $6.00 a month, retroactive to March 12, 1895. A later appeal by Tucker to have his pension benefit increased was rejected due to insufficient evidence. However, in 1911 the veteran was granted an old age pension of $15.00 a month.

A very interesting copy of a pencil sketch of Andersonville Prison is in the collection. Made by a prisoner there named Felix LaBaume, it is “Dedicated to my Fellow–Survivors and to all Sons of Veterans, in Memory of 14,000 martyrs who perished.” There are several graphic illustrations of the inhuman treatment of the prisoners. The original pencil sketch was used as evidence in the trial of the Commandant of Andersonville, Henry Wirz. William B. Tucker was also imprisoned there for several months in 1864.

Railroad papers trace the employment of William B. Tucker as a Railway Postal Clerk between Nashville and Chattanooga, Tennessee. He was employed in that position from 1883 until 1888 when he was terminated, due probably to a change in administrations in Washington, D. C. He was reappointed in early 1890 and remained there until April 1891. The slavery item is a receipt crediting William Tucker, Sr. for catching a runaway slave in 1844. There are several voter registration certificates that were issued at the end of Civil War.
